

MLK PLAZA (BEHIND MEMORIAL STUDENT UNION)

I have a dream that one day this nation will rise up and live out the meaning of its creed: "We hold these truths to be self-evident, that all men are created equal." I have a dream that one day on the hills of Georgia the sons of former slaves and the sons of former slaveowners will be able to sit down together at a table of brotherhood. I have a dream that one day even the state of Mississippi, a desert state, swarming with the heat of injustice and oppression, will be transformed into a oasis of freedom and justice. I have a dream that my four children will one day live in a nation where they will not be judged by the color of their skin but by the content of their character. I have a dream today.
